

2021 St Vincent's Hospital Melbourne Palliative Medicine Research Fellowship

An exciting opportunity currently exists for an experienced professional to join our Palliative Care team on a full time, fixed term basis in 2021 for a registrar fellowship position in Palliative Medicine research. You will develop an active role in straddling the interface between research and clinical practice and understand the current research projects undertaken by the service, including the Centre for Palliative Care and under supervision from senior medical and research staff develop a substantive research project.

Position open for enquiries and applications till COB Thursday 9th July 2020

Details for enquires through link to job details and position Description

https://svha.wd3.myworkdayjobs.com/SVHA_SVHM/job/Fitzroy-Melbourne/Palliative-Care-Research-Registrar_JR112836-1