Next Steps with Prescript

At Prescript Recruitment, we follow a transparent, friendly process:

- The first stage is an informal conversation with Prescript for you to decide if you want to proceed – you will need to share your CV and we will talk about the position, the healthcare organisation, and the location. You can let us know if you want to bring your family and if you have any special requirements.
- The second stage is an informal application – we will arrange a phone call or a review of your skills to establish if this is going to be a good fit.
- The third stage – if you're happy then Prescript will send you a locum confirmation to say 'congratulations – all booked!'
- The fourth stage – Prescript will help manage all the paperwork and logistics. All you have to do is look forward to starting.
